Farewell luncheon for Lawrence and Joyce Saretsky

We say thank you and pray for Lawrence and Joyce Saretsky today in a potluck luncheon after mass as they prepare to move out of Houston. Lawrence and Joyce are among our church members who are instrumental for the building of St. Anthony's Parish together with many others. We recognize their valuable contribution and forever be indebted from their generosity of time, resources, and talent in helping build God's church and his people in this part of the world. Thank you Lawrence and Joyce! God bless you wherever you will be.

Bread from heaven: The Prophet Elijah is at the end of his physical and intellectual strength. Everything he has done seems to be in vain, and he wants to die. Then, in the middle of the wilderness, he is given this miraculous food, a food that gives him renewed strength to walk for 40 days and nights to the mountain of God. This heavenly food gives Elijah power to turn the end into a new beginning. In the Gospel, Jesus reveals that this heavenly food, that brings new beginnings, is the very flesh of Jesus. Homework: when we receive the Eucharist, let us pray for new beginnings to the relationships that seem to have ended.

SACRED SCRIPTURE

Christ - The unique Word of Sacred Scripture

III THE HOLY SPIRIT, INTERPRETER OF SCRIPTURE

109 In Sacred Scripture, God speaks to man in a human way. To interpret Scripture correctly, the reader must be attentive to what the human authors truly wanted to affirm, and to what God wanted to reveal to us by their words.

110 In order to discover the sacred authors' intention, the reader must take into account the conditions of their time and culture, the literary genres in use at that time, and the modes of feeling, speaking and narrating then current. "For the fact is that truth is differently presented and expressed in the various types of historical writing, in prophetic and poetical of correct interpretation, without which texts, and in other forms of literary expression."

111 But since Sacred Scripture is inspired, there is another and no less important principle Scripture would remain a dead letter. "Sacred Scripture must be read and interpreted in the light of the same Spirit by whom it was written."

The Second Vatican Council indicates three criteria for interpreting Scripture in accordance with the Spirit who inspired it.

112 1. Be especially attentive "to the content and unity of the whole Scripture". Different as the books which compose it may be, Scripture is a unity by reason of the unity of God's plan, of which Christ Jesus is the center and heart, open since his Passover. The phrase "heart of Christ" can refer to Sacred Scripture, which makes known his heart, closed before the Passion, as the Scripture was obscure. But the Scripture has been opened since the Passion; since those who from then on have understood it, consider and discern in what way the prophecies must be interpreted.

113 2. Read the Scripture within "the living Tradition of the whole Church". According to a saying of the Fathers, Sacred Scripture is written principally in the Church's heart rather than in documents and records, for the Church carries in her Tradition the living memorial of God's Word, and it is the Holy Spirit who gives her the spiritual interpretation of the Scripture ("... according to the spiritual meaning which the Spirit grants to the Church").

114 3. Be attentive to the analogy of faith.<sup>82</sup> By "analogy of faith" we mean the coherence of the truths of faith among themselves and within the whole plan of Revelation.
