END OF SCHOOL YEAR REFLECTION

A line from a country western song which played (over and over) on our local small town radio station had the phrase, "gone – like summer wages." It feels, to me, like this school year has gone by faster than summer wages. It seems we welcomed our students and our families to a new school year a just few months ago. And we have journeyed with our school community through excitement, learning, sorrow, pride, accomplishment, laughter, frustration, and joy. And here it is, near the end of 2018-19 and we're still caring and trying. That is what it means to live in community. I feel blessed to be part of this caring and life-giving community. Thank you for being part of St. Joseph's and making it so. All the best to our families who are leaving the school. I hope each family has a summer with some joy, some beauty, some recreation. + God Bless! Sincerely, Rosemary McKenzie
